

The Bereavement Register® (TBR) - fast, reliable non-assumed data that deals in fact

Why use TBR?

TBR is the leading consumer service that helps stop direct mail sent to the deceased. Bereaved families and friends provide details of the deceased to TBR, which is then used to remove those names and addresses from company mailing lists and databases.

The 580,000 people who die every year in the UK will continue to receive an average 80 items of direct mail in the year after their death.

Deceased records are only added to the TBR file once they have gone through our stringent build and validation process, ensuring quality over quantity. We don't deal in assumptions, just facts, to make sure you're not paying to remove customers that are still alive and spending.

In other words, it's what we keep out of TBR that counts!

Why use TBR Daily?

Due to the volume of registrations and existing client demand, we have reached a level where it has become viable for us to offer daily updates of TBR data, as TBR Daily. This means you will receive daily data feeds of all online deceased registrations, directly from the bereaved and your data is kept in optimum condition.

The TBR Daily file is accessed through our website (www.tbrdaily.com), using a password. The daily feeds are stored on file whether you choose to download them daily or not, giving you freedom of use.

What can TBR do for you?

- Direct Marketing campaign performance is based on response rate against volume – removing deceased records from your mailing files will maximize response rates and ROI
- Increase your efficiency and corporate responsibility by not mailing people who aren't there – saving you money
- Limit corporate brand damage created by irresponsible data practices
- Help stop identity fraud, which substantially increases the risk of bad debt
- Improve the environmental reputation of your company and the DM industry
- Provide Data Protection Act compliance for your company
- Avoid over-suppressing your database - each record on the TBR file goes through a unique validation process and we don't deal in assumptions

What makes TBR unique?

- 75% of direct mail that is cleaned in the UK, is screened against TBR
- Most records captured within 14 days following death
- 2.9 million records with 10-30,000 new records added per month
- Updated daily and released monthly
- All records are permissioned and verified, giving you reliable non-assumed accurate data

We engage directly with the bereaved, gathering fully-permissioned and verified records:

Death Certificate Folders

REaD UK produces Death Certificate Folders for UK Registrars, which contain a FREEPOST tear off registration form, given to bereaved families.

Leaflets

TBR leaflets are found in more than 5,000 key points throughout the UK. Distributed through a number of outlets such as funeral directors, hospitals, hospices, police family liaison officers, solicitor firms, charities, and Citizen's Advice Bureaux, each leaflet explains how the data will be used and includes a FREEPOST registration form.

Government

The integrity and success of our service is underlined by the fact that we are the only service of this kind to be supported by UK Government. We are listed on DirectGov, the public information website, www.direct.gov.uk, the Department of Health www.dh.gov.uk website, signposted by the Information Commissioner Office and used by Departments in the Home Office, Department of Constitutional Affairs, Ministry of Defence and the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Call Centre and Website

TBR has a dedicated call centre that operates 24 hours a day. The website offers online registration for individual consumers and for organisations working in the bereavement industry to register clients.

Third Party Data Sources

Only third party data feeds of the highest standard are considered for TBR. These then pass through our stringent build and validation process before reaching the file.
